An exclusive evening of Fashion, Art and Philanthropy! Benefiting the Center for Heart, Lung and Kidney Disease at Children's National Medical Center featuring a runway show by Lela Rose as she brings her Spring 2010 Collection to Washington, DC, and a Fashion inspired art auction by 7 of DC's most notable artists "Labels for Love, Inc. benefits 501(c)3 charitable organizations that protect women and children from the damaging effects of poverty, homelessness, political unrest, abuse, and the hardships associated with terminal illnesses. One children's charity and one women's charity is chosen to benefit from event proceeds, per calendar year. While the core of our efforts are geared toward solutions-focused organizations in the Washington, DC Metropolitan area, we also lend our support to national organizations who share in our passion and vision to make a difference." Mary Schmidt Amons is founder and president of Labels for Love.
