At The Saks Fifth Avenue, located in Chevy Chase, Badgley Mischka featured their new Platinum Collection in honor of Saint Jude's Children Research Hospital. Invited guest viewed a runway show featuring models from T.H.E. Agency and were honored by the presence of Mark Badgley and James Mischka. A portion of the proceeds from the evening's event benefited St. Jude's. To continue the support of Saint Jude's hospital, many other events are taking place in honor of the research hospital. On Tuesday, February 17th, St. Jude's will be having their 11th Annual Gourmet Gala. Tickets, starting at $350.00 per person, will provide guests with a spectacular evening in Mardi Gras style at the National Building Museum. On March 9th, The Willard InterContinental and Hermes will host a luncheon and fashion show highlighting Hermes 2009 Spring Collection. For more information and ticket pricing for either event, visit www.stjude.org or contact jeanie.torchio@stjude.org.
